Amazing Grace

English minister John Newton (1725-1802) wrote this hymn in 1760. In the 1800s it became a favorite in black churches in America. Today it is widely sung at concerts and special commemorative events.

By Rev. John Newton

Majestically

A - maz - ing grace, how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me.
 I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now can see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
 And grace my fears relieved.
 How precious did that grace appear,
 The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares
 I have already come;
 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
 And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
 His word my hope secures;
 He will my shield and portion be,
 As long as life endures.

The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
 The sun forbear to shine;
 But God, who called me here below,
 Will be forever mine.
