SHA LEE HUNG BA

English: Gloria J. Kiester

Xinjiang

1. Where do all the cam - els come from?
 2. What's that on the cam - els' backs?
 3. Do they cost a pret - ty pen - ny?
 4. Buyers on the couch are rich and greed - y,

} Sha lee hung ba,

Hay - yee, hay!

{ From the des - ert and the moun - tain
 Silks and sat - ins packed in sacks,
 You can look if you've not an - y,
 Buyers on the floor are poor and need - y, }

1.-3. Sha lee hung ba, Hay - yee, hay!

4. Hay - yee, hay!

This song appears in Songs of China: Traditional Children's Folk Songs, by Gloria J. Kiester and Martha Chrisman Riley, MMB Music, Inc., 1988. The book is now out of print.

f 1. This is a song of har - vest, Of fields of gold - en
p 2. Warm is the sun these gold-en days, With gold-en rays on gold - en
f 3. This is a time of joy Our boun - ty o - ver - grain. See the sheaves so full and tall grain. Fra - grance fills the au - tumn air;

 flows. Now we've noth - ing, noth - ing to fear,

Prom - is - ing plen - ty for us all. Now we've noth - ing
 Nev - er was earth so fair.
 O such a - bun-dance for the year!

noth - ing to fear, O such a - bun-dance for the year!
