The King of Glory! is an anthem for Palm Sunday that incorporates the beloved traditional hymn “Hosanna, Loud Hosanna.” It may be performed by S. A. B. choir alone, or with the addition of unison children’s choir and/or congregational singing. Conceived as a flexible anthem for worship, it may be presented in standard anthem format or expanded through simple repetition to include a Palm Sunday processional.

The King of Glory! begins with a strong proclamation in which the choir announces that the King of glory is the Lord of our salvation. Beginning at m. 29, the familiar phrase “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!” is heard, first sung by soprano voices and then by all women’s voices. This phrase may be sung by unison children’s voices, and mm. 29-36 may be repeated as necessary for processionals.

Optional congregational singing begins at m. 51 as the traditional hymn tune enters for the first time. After a key change, a high descant above the hymn tune provides a brilliant final verse, capped by a choral postlude.

Suggested corresponding lectionary readings include Psalm 22, Psalm 118, Isaiah 50: 4-7, Luke 22: 14-17 and Luke 23: 1-56, and Philippians 2: 6-11. One basic homiletical theme is praising with loud hosannas the King of glory who, though of equal stature with God, humbled Himself, taking human form and dying for the salvation of all humankind.

Verse 1:
(Choir only) Who is the King? Who is the King of glory? He is the Lord, my strength and song!
Who is the King? Who is the King of glory? He has become my salvation!
Hear the shouts of joy and victory: The Lord's own hand is lifted high for He offers new life, this exalted One: "He is our King," the people cry!
Who is the King? Who is the King of glory? He is the Lord, my strength and song!
Who is the King? Who is the King of glory? He has become my salvation!

Verse 2:
(Choir only) Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!
Who is the King? Who is the King of glory?
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!
Who is the King? Who is the King of glory? Hosanna!
