FOREWORD

Listening to music is one of the most popular pastimes, enjoyed by people all over the world. Whether listening to recordings or attending live concerts, music has the ability to inspire and give pleasure to almost everyone.

For many students and professionals, playing a musical instrument is an even more enjoyable experience. But understanding how music is constructed; how scales and chords are formed; the relationship between major and minor keys; and how music is composed through melody, harmony and chord progressions can enhance the musical experience even further. There is also current scientific research which proves that studying music improves I.Q. scores—it actually makes students smarter.

Alfred’s Essentials of Music Theory is designed for students of any age, whether listener or performer, who want to have a better understanding of the language of music.

BOOKS 1, 2, 3: This theory course is made up of three books of 40 pages each, with each book containing six units. A unit consists of four or five pages of instructional material (including written exercises), an Ear Training page and a Review page.

Each new term is capitalized the first time it is introduced (GRAND STAFF) and will also be listed in the Glossary & Index of Terms and Symbols (along with the page number) at the end of each book. As the Glossary only contains terms introduced within the book, it is a complete listing of subjects included.

COMPLETE BOOK: Alfred’s Essentials of Music Theory is also available in one complete book of 120 pages that contains all the pages included in the separate books. An alto clef (viola) edition is also available in one complete or three separate books.

TEACHER’S ANSWER KEY: A Complete Book with the answers for the exercises from the Lesson and Review pages and music for the Ear Training pages. Also included is a reproducible sheet for listing student names and grades for the Ear Training and Review pages.

COMPACT DISCS: One of the difficulties in studying music theory is not being able to hear what is being learned. The two CDs available (CD 1 covers Books 1 and 2, CD 2 covers Book 3) not only allow the student to hear the musical elements discussed, but offers the student opportunities to test their listening skills. Musical examples are played by a variety of instruments (piano, flute, clarinet, alto saxophone, trumpet, trombone, violin and cello).

COMPUTER SOFTWARE: The use of computers in the music studio has become commonplace in many schools and universities. Alfred’s Essentials of Music Theory offers companion software for both IBM-compatible and Macintosh computers that will allow the instructor to test and drill students, keep track of their students’ progress, and make use of interactive instruction in the classroom.

The Staff, Notes and Pitches

Music is written on a STAFF of five lines and the four spaces between.

The STAFF

Music NOTES are oval-shaped symbols that are placed on the lines and in the spaces. They represent musical sounds, called PITCHES.

The lines of the staff are numbered from bottom to top.

The spaces between the lines are also numbered from bottom to top.

If the notes appear higher on the staff, they sound higher in pitch.
If the notes appear lower on the staff, they sound lower in pitch.

Exercises

1. Draw a staff by connecting the dots. Use a ruler or straight edge. Number the lines, then the spaces from low to high.

2. On the staff, mark an X in the following locations:

   Line 3  Space 2  Line 1  Space 4  Line 5  Space 1  Line 4  Space 3  Line 2

3. Write notes like this 0 on the following lines and spaces:

   Space 4  Line 1  Space 2  Line 3  Space 1  Line 5  Space 3  Line 2  Line 4

4. Indicate whether the 2nd note is higher or lower than the 1st note by using an H (higher) or L (lower).
Treble Clef and Staff

Music notes are named after the first seven letters of the alphabet, from A to G. By their position on the staff, they can represent the entire range of musical sound.

CLEF signs help to organize the staff so notes can easily be read.

The TREBLE CLEF is used for notes in the higher pitch ranges. The treble (or G) clef has evolved from a stylized letter G:

The curl of the treble clef circles the line on which the note G is placed. This G is above MIDDLE C (the C nearest the middle of the keyboard).

In the treble staff, the names of the notes on the lines from bottom to top are E, G, B, D, F.

The names of the notes in the spaces from bottom to top spell FACE.

Exercises

1. The treble clef is written in two motions. Trace along the dotted lines as indicated, then draw four more.

2. Write the letter names of the following notes. Use capital letters.

3. Write the notes on the staff indicated by the letters. If the notes can be written in two places, write one above the other.
