Thanks

Many thanks to Henner Diederich who inspired me to write this book, and for his expert advice and support.
I'd also like to thank Thomas Petzold from Alfred Publishing Germany for his jazzy and creative way of realising this project, and for managing the whole production process.
Thank you to Petra Weissenfels for the pretty cover design, to Ralf Werner for the sonorous recordings, and last, but not least, to Andrew Higgins from Alfred Publishing UK for the English translations.
