About the author

Dr. Vahid Matejko

According to the German music press and the most renowned critics of various musical genres, Dr. Vahid Matejko is one of the most promising and interesting talents of the German music scene as a composer and producer. They praise his unique style and the exciting way he adapts music from a wide variety of cultures with profound understanding, whilst always producing something distinctly new from it. In addition, he is considered one of the few artists who both realize their own individual music (including productions that combine orchestra and big band into one sound body) and accept commissions in various genres for a wide variety of clients. These range from solo, orchestral and big band compositions to various ensemble works, film scores, electronic advertising jingles, pop/rock songs for singers and complementary arrangements to existing works.

With this Shanty Play-Along series, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to a very valuable and long-standing publishing partner for me, my editor and production manager at Alfred Music Thomas Petzold, for a great, trusting and very special collaboration over all these years. His exceptional commitment, his more than thirty years of experience in publishing, and his great dedication in producing the publications, as well as his fantastic sense for the trends of the times, are what set him apart.

Thomas, you have inspired me time and time again to create great projects and to enter the world of play-alongs in my early days of writing in the first place. I couldn't have asked for a better publisher for my products than you. I am very happy that we could realize this last, big project together before your retirement. I thank you for everything.
