

Symphony No. 9

(Fourth Movement)

Ludwig van Beethoven

Arranged by Michael Hopkins

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770–1827) composed his Symphony No. 9, op. 125 during the years 1822–1824, premiering it in Vienna in May of 1824. In the fourth movement of this symphony, Beethoven broke with tradition by adding solo voices and a chorus. His setting of Schiller's poem "Ode to Joy" proclaimed the glory of the human spirit and has been an inspiration to generations of listeners. This instrumental arrangement of Beethoven's great and sublime finale includes the opening presentation of the "Joy" theme, the "Turkish March," the beautiful adagio section, and the rousing prestissimo finale. To make the wind and brass parts more accessible to young musicians, the arrangement is set in C major. Ranges and rhythms have been simplified while retaining the character of the original. String parts are bowed and can largely be played within first position.
