

The next evening, Mozart Mouse and Beethoven Bear helped Professor Haydn Hippo change into his costume. They were so proud of the work they had done!

The Professor stared at his reflection in the mirror. Looking back at him was an elegant gentleman in a black tailcoat, white shirt, red bow tie and black pants. He had on a gray wig and in his hand he held a baton. He was an orchestra conductor!

"It's perfect!" he declared. "Now what do we do?"

"It's easy!" Mozart Mouse explained. "We go to each house, knock on the door and shout, "Trick-or-treat!"

"And then we get lots of yummy candy," said Beethoven Bear, licking his lips.

- 1 Clap (or tap) Trick-or-Treat and count aloud evenly.
- 2 Point to the notes and count aloud evenly.
- 3 Say the finger numbers aloud while playing them in the air.
- 4 Play and say the finger numbers.
- 5 Play and say the note names.
- 6 Play and sing the words.
