

Hello, Professor, won't you come in?" Mozart Mouse asked politely. He was trying to hide his disappointment.

"Hello, everyone," he answered cheerfully. Then he looked around the room. No one was smiling. In fact, everyone looked quite sad.

"What's wrong? Have I come at a bad time?" he asked.

"Oh, no," replied Mozart Mouse. "It's just that we were expecting. . . you said you were bringing. . . ."

"A surprise?" the Professor finished for him. Then he chuckled. "You thought I forgot, didn't you?" He smiled as he pulled an envelope out of his pocket. "Well, I didn't." He took a card from the envelope and began to read.
