MAKE-UP ARTIST: MAKE-UP!

(Using a powder puff or soft pillow and a generous amount of baby powder, the Make-Up Artist socks Swingle in the face, leaving him in a cloud of dust. Swingle exits left, coughing and fanning the air.)

WINTER: In five, ... four, ... three, ... (She holds up two fingers, then one, and finally a “thumbs up” for zero.)

(The music begins. The entire cast fills the stage. Winter moves to the empty chair in the pit where she sits with the camera crew and supervises.)

ANNOUNCER: Live from Snowbank Studios in Jollywood, North Pole, it's “Santa's Rockin' Christmas Eve.”

Rock and Roll (♩ = ca. 160)

PIANO

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 4/4 time, marked f (forte). The piano part features a driving rock-and-roll rhythm. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics "Hey, hey, we're gon-na have a par-ty to - night. —". The score includes stage directions such as "Clap above head", "Freeze in dancing/action pose", "Dance/move", "Freeze", and "Dance". The music is in the key of D major and 4/4 time. The piano part includes a variety of chords and melodic lines, while the vocal parts are simple and catchy. The score is divided into two parts, PART I and PART II, with measures 4 and 8 marked.

PART I Clap above head Freeze in dancing/action pose Dance/move

Hey, hey, we're gon-na have a par-ty to - night. —

PART II

Hey, hey, we're gon-na have a par-ty to - night. —

Freeze Dance

Hey, hey, a tel - e - vi - sion par - ty, all right. —

The cast holds the final pose during applause. On the downbeat of Swingle's Introduction, they stand facing stage left in anticipation of Swingle's entrance.)
