About the Artist: Linda Carter Holman spent part of her childhood in Venezuela, and was brought up in Cushing, OK. At age 20 she began teaching herself to paint, and since then has developed her painting style from naive to highly sophisticated. Her subject matter is frequently women in colorful, imaginative costumes. In addition to paintings, she also works in monoprints, lithographs, and ceramics. She resides in California, and her work can be seen on her website, www.carterholman.com.
