

Elijah Rock is an energetic “swing style” setting of the popular traditional spiritual that also incorporates references to Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho and Rock-A My Soul in the Bosom of Abraham. It employs animated choral call-and-response and occasional swing elements such as “scat syllables,” blues harmonies and vocal slides. HINT: for the final consonant in “doot,” implode the “t” (close to the “t” without articulating it).

Appropriate for performance by both school and church choirs, this arrangement is available both for S.A.B. voices and in a flexible edition for 2-part any combination of treble or mixed voices. Optional instrumental parts (No. 23701) and a full performance/accompaniment compact disc (No. 23700) are available separately.

For performance by church choirs, suggested corresponding scripture readings include Deuteronomy 32: 1-18, Psalms 31 & 94, Malachi 4: 5, Matthew 12: 24-29 & 17: 1-13, Mark 9: 2-13 and Ephesians 6: 10-18. Suitable for worship throughout the year, it may be especially appropriate for Lent, Reformation and Transfiguration.

Dave and Jean Perry are free-lance composers living in Sierra Vista, Arizona. Retired after many years as music educators and church musicians, they are in great demand as clinicians and have over 250 sacred and secular choral works in print. They have received the ASCAP special composer’s award annually since 1999.
