BWV refers to Bach-Werke-Verzeichnis (List of Bach's works). The number following this designation is the number assigned to the work in Wolfgang Schmieder's Thematische-Systematische Verzeichnis der Musikalischen Werke von Johann Sebastian Bach (Thematic-systematic List of the Musical Works of Johann Sebastian Bach). The prefix Anh. is used to designate numbers catalogued in the Anhang (Appendix) of the Schmieder list.

The menuet (men-you-ET) is a dance of French origin. It is said that King Louis XIV danced the “very first” menuet, composed by Lully in 1653. Menuets were originally played at a very moderate tempo but later took on considerably more speed. They should always be played with graceful dignity. Menuet is sometimes spelled Menuett (in German) and Minuetto (in Italian).

MENUET IN D MINOR

BWV Anh. 132
from the Notebook
for Anna Magdalena

Allegro moderato M.M. ♩ = 108-120

- Ⓐ This ornament is called the SCHLEIFER, a German word meaning “slide.” The two notes just below the written note are played on the beat, as rapidly as possible, “sliding” quickly into the written note, as indicated by the notes in light print on the small staff above this measure. See the discussion on page 4.
