A CHRISTMAS MARCH

The ever-popular carol "Joy to the World," cleverly transformed into a stately march at the perfect level for your second year players' holiday concert! Refreshing harmonies, dove-tailed phrases and interesting counter melodies give this arrangement a sophisticated and "contemporary" sound that performers and audiences will love. Designed by the composer to help teach his own students dotted half and dotted eighth notes, hooks, slurs and notes on the G string, this march reinforces independent part reading in a way not usually found at this level. With a first violin part that is just a bit more challenging than the other parts, your entire string orchestra will grow musically after rehearsing and performing this wonderfully educational work.
