

DON'T STOP THE MUSIC

This Grammy-nominated dance hit dominated the airwaves during the summer of 2007. Just two years earlier, Rihanna (Robyn Rihanna Fenty) burst onto the music scene with her popular "Pon de Replay." "Don't Stop the Music" appeared on her third album, Good Girl Gone Bad, which was nominated for nine Grammy awards. Another hit from the album, "Umbrella," can be found on page 131.

FALLING SLOWLY

(FROM "ONCE")

The soundtrack for the 2007 independent film Once took the Grammy and Academy awards by storm with nominations for Best Original Song and Soundtrack. "Falling Slowly" won the Academy award for Best Original Song and was performed live at the ceremony by co-stars Glen Hansard and Markéta Irglová. In the movie, they played struggling musicians who cross paths at a crucial time in their lives.

UMBRELLA

Rihanna collaborated with rap superstar Jay-Z on this hit single from her third album Good Girl Gone Bad. "Umbrella" has achieved worldwide success on the pop charts and has also been covered in a variety of styles by countless artists. In 2008 "Umbrella" won a Grammy for Best Rap/Sung Collaboration. It was also nominated for Record of the Year and Song of the Year.
