RADETZKY MARCH

Through historically overshadowed by his son, Johann Strauss, Jr. ("The Waltz King"), Johann Strauss, Sr. was a prolific composer himself with over 150 waltzes of his own published. In 1834, he was appointed bandmaster of the 1st Vienna militia regiment. His best-known work is the Radetzky March, written in 1848 in honor of the Austrian general Joseph Radetzky, who had roused the Italian rebellion at Custozza earlier that year. The tone of the piece is more festive than military, matching the dedicatee's exuberant personality and popularity in the ballroom as well as the battlefield. At its premiere, the Austrian officers in the audience began clapping along and enthusiastically stomping their feet. This tradition survives today when the march is played in concert halls throughout Vienna. It is traditionally the last piece of music played each year at the world-famous New Year's morning concert in Vienna, Austria, broadcast around the world to an estimated audience of one billion people.
