

Kallalanta

William G. Harbinson

Winner of the 2007 Merle J. Isaac Senior Composition Contest, this piece is at various times serene, romantic, energetic, and playful. The gorgeous original composition opens with a descending-third motive that returns throughout. Named for a summer home in the beautiful hills of North Carolina, the piece will transport you to a magical, musical, summer retreat.

PROGRAM NOTES

Kallalanta, an overture for symphonic orchestra, was composed for the Appalachian Symphony Orchestra in honor of Mariam Cannon Hayes, the patroness of the Hayes School of Music at Appalachian State University. The composer writes, “Mrs. Hayes is a multi-faceted woman: business leader, philanthropist, and family matriarch. With that in mind, my idea was to compose a work that expressed, in a general manner, a diversity of moods or characters. Kallalanta is at various times serene, romantic, energetic, and playful.” The composition takes its name from the Blowing Rock, NC summer home of Mrs. Hayes.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The composition opens with a descending third motive that is found in various forms throughout the work. Following the quiet introduction, a transition leads to a lively, rhythmic section. An expressive, lyrical passage expands the theme from the introduction. The faster tempo returns for a section that develops the rhythmic theme. A varied restatement of the lyrical theme leads to a coda that recalls the opening measures and brings the work to a quiet conclusion. This piece was the winner of the 2007 Merle J. Isaac Senior Composition Contest.
