Notes to the Conductor

Get ready to play in the style made famous by Bob Marley! Fun rhythms, the friendly key of E minor, and a catchy drum groove make this a crowd pleaser. Rocksteady Reggae is a one-drop reggae—the bass drum hit on beat one is dropped. The drum groove emphasizes beat three with a hit on both the snare's rim and the bass drum as the drummer plays a swing groove on the hi-hat. The eighth notes in all parts are slightly swung. The section from measures 41–57 is open for soloists to improvise. Measure 57 is cued. A sample solo is provided, but the students can come up with their own, or this can become a section solo. The E minor pentatonic scale (E, G, A, B, D) and the E Aeolian mode (E, F#, G, A, B, C, D, E) both work nicely during the solo section. During the improvised section, second violins and violists should keep the pizzicato notes very dry and short. This will help capture the crisp sound of the guitar technique reggae performers use on beats two and four called skanking.
