Monticello Mosaic

By Gary Fagan

Monticello is a beautiful historic estate that was home to Thomas Jefferson. The property is a mosaic of beautiful gardens, historic architecture, ingenious inventions, and panoramic views of the countryside. This piece endeavors to musically depict the characteristics of this historic landmark of American culture and history.

Construction on Monticello began in 1769 according to Jefferson's first design, which was completed (except for porticoes and decorative interior woodwork) when he left for Europe in 1784. Work on a new design for remodeling and enlarging the house began in 1796 and was complete by 1809. Located near Charlottesville, Virginia, Monticello is in the midst of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence and the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, was third president of the United States from 1801–1809, and founder of the University of Virginia.
