

Happy Birthday to You! is sung to celebrate the anniversary of a person's birth. It is one of the world's most frequently performed songs, and its words have been translated into many languages.

The words and music were written by Mildred J. Hill and Patty S. Hill of Louisville, Kentucky. The sisters were teachers and changed the words for the song Good Morning to You to sing it for birthday celebrations. They wanted a song that could be easily sung by children, but it has become popular with people of all ages.
