PROGRAM NOTES

The text for the popular carol O Come, O Come Emmanuel was written by John M. Neale in the mid-1800s. It was based on the Latin text "Veni, Veni, Emmanuel." The music was most likely based on a 15th-century French processional. The hauntingly beautiful melody is unusual in that the first part consists of four three-measure phrases.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The first section of the melody contains four phrases that are in the unusual length of three measures each. Encourage your students to "play through" each phrase in one breath if possible, observing the breath marks.

I hope you and your ensemble find O Come Emmanuel to be an exciting and worthwhile musical experience!
