PROGRAM NOTES

Lady Antebellum is one of the hottest American country pop music groups today. In 2008, the group was awarded the Country Music Association Awards (CMA) New Artist of the Year. Since then, they have accumulated seven more awards, including their first Grammy in 2009 for Best Country Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocals. At the 2010 CMAs, the group became the first in CMA Award history to receive the Single of the Year honor for two consecutive years.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

This country ballad is to be played lightly, and the dynamic level, as indicated in the score, should not exceed a mezzo forte. In this arrangement, combinations of solo and tutti sections, along with cues, have been utilized to provide much flexibility to both small and large ensembles. Make certain to follow the articulations closely and specifically when playing the sixteenth notes. All tonguing must be light, never heavy. Work on ensemble tightness at measure 26. Notice that one player on drumset may play the Percussion 1 part. In addition, both a Piano/Keyboard and Electric Bass part have been included with this arrangement for harmonic support.

With its catchy melody and harmonies, Just a Kiss is guaranteed to be you students' favorite ballad this year.
