PROGRAM NOTES

The life and times of mega-star Marilyn Monroe, or more precisely, the creation of a Broadway musical based on her story, is the core of the successful NBC musical drama, SMASH.

Most of the music in the series is original material, produced by the brilliant songwriting team of Marc Shaiman and Scott Wittman, and is featured in each episode with rich and colorful orchestrations.

This medley pulls together an entertainingly varied group of tunes from the first season: "Secondhand White Baby Grand," "Let's Be Bad," "Don't Forget Me," "The 20th Century Fox Mambo," and "Let Me Be Your Star."

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

- Frequent changes in tonal centers, tempi, and style will definitely keep players on their toes.
- Dynamics throughout have been carefully placed to insure proper balance between melody and accompaniment, and should be strictly observed.
- In measures 1 through 36, the accompaniment should be played with a true legato technique, two dynamic levels below the melody.
- Staccato markings, especially those in measures 39 through 67, should not be played too short. The tonal center of each note must be heard.
- The accents indicated in measures 69 through 89 should not be played with excessive force. Rather, all that is needed is a slight push to keep the rhythmic drive moving forward.

Best wishes for a 'smashing' Broadway-style performance!
