NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

What you have here is your basic flag-waving, barn-burning, straight-ahead swing chart, and believe it or not, it's not all that hard to play! What do you mean, you don't believe me? Okay, there are a few licks that your band will want to take a peek at (hello, m. 243), but really, this is actually a reasonably playable chart.

Much of this chart is derived from the tenor sax lick in mm. 17–18, which is essentially the compositional framework for the song. If you get a chance, listen to the Big Phat Band's recording of this chart on our CD Life in the Bubble, and check out the horns as they play the figure in m. 35. You can hear their air support pushing all the way through all six notes of that lick—that's what makes it pop. You can hear this again in m. 94, where the trumpets and saxes pass that eighth-note phrase back and forth. Air support is so essential. It helps with sound, intonation and, on a tune like this, forward momentum and good time. So dig in, breathe deep, and commit to that air support!

The solo section begins at m. 110, and the chord changes are pretty fun to blow on—just keep track of all those dominant 7th chords flying by.

After the solos, in the development section, the different sections pass the primary lick back and forth, as in m. 178. Listen closely and hand off that lick to each other in a clean, tight manner. Trombones, you guys get a piece of this, too, in m. 187. The passage at mm. 224–229 is one of the places that requires close attention to time, especially in the saxes—don't be late!

As we push to the end of the chart, you have m. 243 and m. 244 standing in our way. This is the lick that gave the guys in the Big Phat Band the most trouble, although you can't really tell by how they played it. But I know the trumpets and saxes in my band spent a little time playing this lick slowly at first, in order to lock it in. The members in your band should do the same!

Picking the correctly tempo for this chart (or any chart) is important, and the lick in mm. 243–244 is probably your determining factor. How fast can you execute that sucker? There's your tempo!

The bass has a quick solo at the end, in mm. 246–247, which is also a little tricky. But you can leave out the pick-up notes in m. 246 if you want—that's cool.

Just make sure you play m. 247 with good time, so that the rhythmic momentum continues all the way to the entire ensemble's big, explosive last note, which should have a big, explosive, and nasty fall on it, too! It's kind of your band's way of saying "That's why we can't have nice things!"

I hope you have fun playing this chart!

—Gordon Goodwin

Gordon
Goodwin

Gordon Goodwin started composing at the age of three. No masterpieces at that time, but he kept at it and wrote his first big band chart at age 13. It was good enough to convince him that he could possibly keep doing this. Flash cut 20 years later and Gordon is working in Hollywood, writing for television and film, playing sessions on keyboards and woodwinds, and working with artists like Ray Charles, Christina Aguilera, Johnny Mathis, Toni Braxton, John Williams, Natalie Cole, David Foster, Sarah Vaughan, Mel Torme, Brian McKnight, and Quincy Jones, to name a few. Goodwin's cinematic scoring and orchestration craft can be heard on such films as The Sorcerer's Apprentice, Escape to Witch Mountain, Get Smart, Glory Road, National Treasure, The Incredibles, Remember the Titans, Armageddon, The Majestic, Con Air, Gone In 60 Seconds, Enemy of the State, Star Trek Nemesis, and even the classic cult film Attack of the Killer Tomatoes.

In 2000, Goodwin formed The Big Phat Band, an eighteen piece jazz ensemble, which quickly gained a reputation as one of the most exciting large jazz ensembles on the planet. To date, the BPB has released five records, Swingin' For The Fences (2000), XXL (2003), The Phat Pack (2006), Act Your Age (2008), and That's How We Roll (2011). The albums have featured state-of-the-art guest artists like Arturo Sandoval, Eddie Daniels, Take 6, Brian McKnight, Johnny Mathis, Michael Brecker, Dianne Reeves, David Sanborn, Chick Corea, Dave Grusin, Lee Ritenour, Patti Austin, Art Tatum, Dave Koz, Gerald Albright, and Marcus Miller.

Goodwin's work has garnered him three Emmy Awards and eleven Grammy® nominations, with three Grammy wins for his work on the Pixar film The Incredibles (2006) and his arrangements of "Rhapsody in Blue" (2012) and "On Green Dolphin Street" (2014). His charts are played all over the world, and along with his method books and CDs, have been a robust source of inspiration and learning for thousands of young musicians.
