(Two Stage Hands enter carrying a big box filled with snow.)

STAGE HAND 1: Here it is.

STAGE HAND 2: A super-size order of one hundred percent Grade A fluffy white snow!

STAGE HAND 1: Fresh from the mountaintops this morning.

STAGE HAND 2: Where do ya want it?

STUDENT 1: Hold on! Not yet.

STUDENT 2: That's not till later in the show.

STAGE HAND 1: Oops, we thought we heard our cue.

STUDENT 3: We're saving it for the grand finale.

STAGE HAND 2: Oh, the grand finale. Got it.

(Stage Hands exit as the Paperboy takes center stage. During the following line, Ollie and Gilbert take their places downstage right.)

PAPERBOY: (with great enthusiasm) Extra! Extra! This just in. Forecast calls for wintry conditions. Weatherman predicts a chance of snow. Kids everywhere are getting excited to see the first snowfall of the year! (exits)

OLLIE: Did you hear that, Gilbert?

GILBERT: Sure did, Ollie. Winter's on the way.

OLLIE: Guess it's time to stop wearing your bikini. (chuckles)

GILBERT: Very funny, but not as funny as your ugly winter sweater.

OLLIE: What do you mean? It took a dozen sheep to make this sweater.

GILBERT: Really?! I didn't know sheep could knit. (chuckles)

OLLIE: Good one, Gilbert. Say, did you hear what the winter hat said to the wooly scarf?

GILBERT: No, what?

OLLIE: You HANG AROUND while I go on aHEAD.

(They both laugh.)

GILBERT: By the way, I noticed you were only wearing one glove yesterday. Did you LOSE one?

OLLIE: Nope. I FOUND one!
