PROGRAM NOTES

Originally written as a brass and percussion fanfare for the prestigious Dallas Wind Symphony, Burn features relentlessly driving rhythms, bold contemporary harmonies, and powerful moments of elevated dynamic impact.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The opening measures should be boldly played, and crisply articulated. In measures 12–18, the ensemble should pay close attention to the dynamic contrast, observing the sudden drop to mezzo piano and the ensuing crescendo to fortissimo in measure 18. At measure 29, all players should work to play quietly, but without any loss of intensity or reduction in tempo. In measures 51–54, concentrate on good breathing and air support during the crescendo to the fortissimo impact at measure 55. Finally, at measure 73, the band should carefully observe the dramatic subito piano and the subsequent build to the powerful concluding statement in the final two measures.
