

Walk in the Light is appropriate for use during the entire church year. It is intended to be easily learned and performed with selected sections teachable to the congregation. It is flexible in design and can be used as a complete anthem or a simple benediction (see footnote on Page 9). The anthem incorporates the South African Folksong “Siyahamba” and choirs may alternate singing the English words with the Zulu text. Related scriptures include Psalm 89:15, Isaiah 42:16, and John 9:5.

Mark Cabaniss is a music publisher, producer, composer, and playwright based in Nashville, Tennessee. As an ASCAP composer and arranger, Mark's published compositions have been performed nationally and abroad and include musicals, cantatas, and instrumental works. He is a multiple recipient of ASCAP's Popular Music Award and is a Dove Award and Angel Award-winning producer. Mark is an Outstanding Alumnus of the Year of Mars Hill University and also serves on the University's Board of Trustees. He founded and permanently endowed The Helen Cole Krause Music Scholarship for college music majors.

Ruth Elaine Schram lives in Birmingham, Alabama, where she is a full-time composer and arranger. She currently has over 2,000 published works for all types of choirs, soloists, instrumentalists, and keyboard. In addition to her printed choral music, her songs appear on numerous albums and videos and have been heard on various television shows.
