

Sing to the World – This buoyant song is an exhortation to all of us to take the Gospel message everywhere. It is a joyful assignment, not a drudgery. It’s not called “The Good News” for nothing! Your choir will enjoy the melody and the antiphony, as well as the simple harmony. “Sing it and be glad!”

Ryan Mascilak is a bright and rising multi-genre composer. In the span of three years, he received his BA in Film Scoring from Berklee College of Music in Boston, MA, with private studies in classical guitar, piano and acting in its contemporary musical theater program. His dedicated passion for dramatic scoring and orchestral arranging finds its way into each of his numerous compositions. Ryan has established careers both in the film music industry and in Christian music ministry since 2008.

He is a native of Middlesex County, MA, and a lover of all things nature. He currently lives in Southern California where he works as a music librarian, composer, private music instructor, singer-songwriter, music minister and actor, and is active on multiple advisory musical boards for the entertainment industry.

Dave Williamson – Since 1969, Dave Williamson has been worship pastor in churches small, medium, and large. A licensed minister, his career path has taken him to churches of several denominations.

His choirs and singing groups have been featured on dozens of recordings. He has produced and/or arranged for Christian musicians such as Natalie Grant, FFH, Larnelle Harris, Ron Kenoly, Babbie Mason, The Martins, Point of Grace, Alvin Slaughter, Sandi Patty, Truth and scores more—over 500 major recording projects since 1970. He has been nominated for numerous Dove awards, winning multiple Doves for “Musical of the Year.”

Dave has produced and arranged three gold records, denoting sales of over 500,000. Dave has written or arranged anthems, orchestrations, musicals and collections for virtually every major contemporary Christian music publisher.

The passion of Dave’s heart is to be part of seeing the choir in the church around the world rediscover God’s original plan for it—becoming worship leaders in the truest sense. He has dedicated his life to that objective, and in 2011, Dave wrote the award-winning book God’s Singers: A Guidebook for the Worship Leading Choir in the 21st Century, published by One Voice Publishers. His new book, God’s GREAT Singers, is due out very soon. Dave spends much time “on location” with choirs in churches, and with music leaders in workshops worldwide, teaching on this timely concern.

Dave lives in Spring Hill, Tennessee, with his lyricist/poet/journalist/photographer wife of 45+ years, Jan, and near their three married children and 11 grandchildren.
