HOST 2: She's the apple of our eye, here's Granny Smith.

(Contestants applaud as Granny enters and takes a seat at the judges' table.)

GRANNY: What a lovely greeting!

BILLY: So nice to see all of you!

HOST 1: The solo bake off portion of the competition began late last night when our contestants were given their first assignment.

HOST 2: The judges left plenty of room for interpretation and asked our cooks to create holiday treats of their own choosing.

HOST 1: The only requirement is that their creations must be appropriate for a festive holiday party.

GRANNY: Shall we begin?

BILLY: Who's up first?

DEBBIE: I'll go. (brings cookies forward as the host speaks)

HOST 2: Debbie Dunbar began cooking at home as a teenager. She fell in love with baking in the seventh grade when she made her very first Snickerdoodle.

GRANNY: What do we have here, Debbie?

BILLY: I see some familiar shapes.

DEBBIE: Yes you do, Billy. Everybody back at home just raves about my holiday sugar cookies!

(During the song, judges sample Debbie's sugar cookies.)
