PROGRAM NOTES

"I'm Seventeen Come Sunday" is a popular British folk song probably written in the mid 19th century. This arrangement is based on the Percy Grainger choral and brass band arrangement written in 1905–1912. English composer Ralph Vaughan Williams also used this folk tune as the basis of the first movement of his English Folk Song Suite.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

This arrangement of the popular Grainger piece can be performed by string orchestra alone, or with added wind and percussion instruments up to full orchestra. The first statement of the melody may be played as a solo, or by as many 1st violins as you wish.

I hope you and your ensemble enjoy the piece, and find it a meaningful introduction to the work of Percy Grainger.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

All Belwin string parts have been carefully bowed and fingered appropriately by level. The Yellow Very Beginning series includes many bowings as well as reminder fingerings for first-time readers. The Red Beginning series includes frequent bowings to assist younger players. Fingerings for altered pitches are often marked. The Green Intermediate series includes appropriately placed bowings for middle-level students. Fingerings and positions are marked for notes beyond first position. The Blue Concert series includes bowings appropriate for the experienced high school player. Fingerings and position markings are indicated for difficult passages.
