PROGRAM NOTES

Inspired by the dynamic back-and-forth of a table tennis match, Ping Pong by John P. Nieto captures that energy through playful call-and-response passages between the violins and trumpets. It is composed as a ranchera valseada (a Mexican waltz featuring a strong guitarrón bassline on beat one and armonía strums on two and three). Tailored specifically for emerging mariachi ensembles, this accessible piece gives beginning students an early, rewarding win on their musical journey.
