

PERFORMANCE NOTES

The Sanctus or Trisagian (“Thrice Holy”) is a prayer sung by the congregation and is the culmination of the celebrant’s Preface to the Eucharistic meal or Communion. It is the fourth section of the Ordinary of the Mass, those sections of the Mass which remain mostly unchanged throughout the Liturgical year.

The words of the Sanctus are adapted from the praises of two seraphim found in Isaiah 6:3 and are also found in Revelations 4:8. As early as the 2nd century it was used in the Hebrew liturgy and by the 7th century, in the Roman rite. It is found almost universally in every Christian rite.

The Benedictus follows the Sanctus and although it is considered a separate section of the Ordinary of the Mass, it is considered an extension of the Sanctus and, is thus, set musically in this manner.

In Latin, all vowel sounds should be pure and unchanging. The “H” in “Hosanna” is silent as if in saying the word “honest”. Below is a pronunciation and translation guide for use with this composition.
