PROGRAM NOTES

The Nutcracker is based on a fairy tale in which a little girl dreams on Christmas night that her dolls and toys come to life and take part in joyous revelry. They are led by the Nutcracker, who is really a prince.

The Nutcracker shows Tchaikovsky in his most lighthearted mood.

First Set

"Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy" is notable for its delicacy and transparency. The solo part, originally written for the celesta, is often played on the piano. "Waltz of the Flowers," the most popular of all of the dances in the ballet, contains exquisite melodies, luxurious harmonies, and colorful instrumentation.

Second Set

"March" opens with a miniature fanfare featuring the trumpets. It is a cheerful, jaunty little march—for toys rather than for soldiers. "Trepak," or Russian dance, is lively, rhythmically exciting, and a bit noisy. Interesting are its unusual accents.
