THE FEELING THAT WE HAVE

Words and Music by
CHARLIE SMALLS

Moderately

The piano introduction consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. The middle and bottom staves are grand staff notation. The music features a steady bass line in the left hand and a more melodic line in the right hand, primarily using chords and eighth notes.

Put your arms a-round me child— like when you bumped your shin.—
 But you can-not ask for more— than can come from me.—

The piano accompaniment for the first line of lyrics continues the melody from the introduction, with the right hand playing chords and eighth notes, and the left hand providing a steady bass line.

Then you'll know I love you now— as I loved you then.
 I am old-er than you are— and one day you'll see.

The piano accompaniment for the second line of lyrics includes a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand and continues the bass line in the left hand.
