

21

- thous-and miles a-way. 2. Oh, dark and dis-mal was the day when last I saw my Meg, she'd a go-vern-ment band a-round each hand and a-no-ther one round her leg. And a-

24

26

-no-ther one round her leg, my lads as the big ship sailed a-way, I said that I'd be true to her ten thou-sand miles a-way. And sing:

28

31

Blow the winds high - o a rov - ing I will go, I'll stay no more on Eng-land's shore for to

f

34

hear the mus - ic play for I'm off on the morn - ing train and I won't be back a - gain I'm tak - ing a trip on a gov - ern - ment ship ten - thou - sand miles a - way.

37

Red. with pedal

41

D. al Coda

45 G7SUS4 G C5 N.C.

3. Oh, the

Hi-Hat

⊕ Coda

49 G C G7 C

- thous-and miles a - way. So go sing: Blow the winds high - o a

52 F Em Am

rov - ing I will go, I'll stay no more on Eng - land's shore for to hear the mus - ic play for I'm off on the mor - ning train and I

54 F G N.C. C