

Brandenburg Concerto No. 3

Johann Sebastian Bach

Arranged by David Marlatt

The Brandenburg concertos by Johann Sebastian Bach (BWV 1046–1051) are a collection of six instrumental works presented by Bach to Christian Ludwig, margrave of Brandenburg-Schwedt, in 1721 (though probably composed earlier). They are widely regarded as among the finest musical compositions of the Baroque era.

This third concerto was originally written for 3 violins, 3 violas, 3 cellos and basso continuo. This grouping of choirs of instruments in threes creates a balanced sonority. To facilitate this grouping, the third trumpet player should perform on flugel horn to allow for combinations with the trumpets and with the horn/trombone.
