Concerto from L'Estro armonico Op. 3 No. 9 RV 230 (J.S. Bach BWV 972)

Antonio Vivaldi
Arranged by David Marlatt

A fairly common practice in the Baroque era was for organists (especially the great J.S. Bach) to “borrow” and transcribe orchestral music from themselves or other composers to create spectacular organ solos. Bach adapted several works by Vivaldi especially from the set of pieces entitled L'estro armonico (Op. 3). This particular transcription was Op. 3 No. 9 and was originally for solo violin and string orchestra. The brilliant showy solo line interspersed with tutti sections lent itself well to the colours of the organ.

The majority of the material has been taken from the original string version but there are some sections that Bach wrote out some terrific ornaments that the arranger felt compelled to include. Other flourishes were added by Chuck Seipp to whom this arrangement was written for.

There are many sections marked “opt. 1 player” throughout this piece. The dynamic level should always support the soloist and never dominate so the conductor may wish to have 1 player per part through these sections.

Also, for balance and colour variety, voices performing the basso continuo part (bassoon, bass clarinet, baritone saxophone, baritone and tuba) may be left out.
