River Run Canyon

Barrie Bartle

River Run Canyon was inspired by a white water rafting excursion in the high elevations of the Rocky Mountains. Feel the spray in your face as it opens with the rise, fall and brief hesitations experienced while riding the river current over and around various rock formations. Eventually the waters deepen and become placid before turning tumultuous once again. There are solo opportunities for clarinet, alto sax and trumpet in this memorable melody and interesting rhythmic overture.

Born in Alaska and raised in Colorado, Barrie Bartle earned degrees in music education at Evangel University in Springfield, Missouri and Marywood University in Scranton, Pennsylvania. His private instrumental instruction began at the age of eight with a former member of the famed John Philip Sousa Band. Bartle's teaching experience includes vocal and instrumental music K-12 in the states of Colorado, Missouri and Pennsylvania where his concert and marching bands received numerous awards.
