After the Silence

Bill Thomas

After the Silence was commissioned by the Huron-Perth Catholic District School Board and the St. Michael and St. Anne's Catholic Secondary School Concert Bands - Josh Geddis and Jeff McIntyre, Directors. It was hoped that the creation of this composition would give the students something further to look forward to when they were able to make music together once again following the interruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Students from both schools contributed ideas for the piece and, as a result of their input, After the Silence was written. The piece is in three connected sections and is meant to musically convey the hectic and perhaps unappreciated pace of life before the pandemic (Before the Silence), the abrupt interruption to our routines and the opportunities for introspection that followed (the Silence), and a gradual, thankful, and optimistic return to our "normal" lives (After the Silence).

I am grateful to all of the students for sharing their thoughts. I was especially moved by a poem submitted by Grace Eddleston, a student at St. Michael's. Her poem, Before, ends with the following stanza (presented here admittedly out of context):

Maybe if they had known that this would be before they would have held hands a little tighter, hugged a little longer, and taken the quiet moment to thank the sun.
