Jubilant Sky Fantasy

Ryan Meeboer

Jubilant Sky Fantasy is a fun, upbeat piece meant to bring joy and liveliness to both the performer and listener. After a strong, attention grabbing introduction, the music moves into a light ostinato accompaniment, followed by the introduction of the main melody. The role of the alto sax soloist at measure 21 is to support the flute melody by giving some weight to it, so the performer cannot overpower the flutes.

The rhythmic background at measure 39 creates a driving motion to move the piece along, but make sure it doesn't overpower the melodic material.

When the contrasting section begins at measure 57, allow the music to build naturally as instruments re-enter, even though dynamics are written.

When 'the grand jubilation' occurs at measure 73, be sure that this section is played with excitement but is not overblown.

Ryan Meeboer is a music educator, who obtained his degree through the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto. As a composer, he has written and arranged many pieces for concert band, jazz band, and small ensembles. His young band piece, Last Voyage of the Queen Anne's Revenge, has been well received by performers, educators, and audiences, and his pieces are starting to be found on festival and contest lists. As a performer, he has had experience in several groups, including concert and stage bands, chamber choir, vocal jazz ensemble, acoustic duets, and the Hamilton based swing group, "The Main Swing Connection".

Ryan began studying music at the age of seven through private guitar lessons. During his years in elementary and secondary school, he gained experience in several families of instruments. Focusing on music education and theory (including composition and orchestration), he attended McMaster University to achieve his honours degree in music. Ryan is currently a teacher for the Halton District School Board in Ontario, where he continues to compose and arrange.

Please contact the composer if you require any further information about this piece or his availability for commissioning new works and appearances.
