

El Camino Spanish March

Ryan Meeboer

El Camino (The Road) is a Spanish march composed in the traditional style of a pasodoble. This piece is fast paced and energetic from start to finish and sounds more complicated than it seems!

The backgrounds throughout give the impression of an offbeat feel through the use of syncopated rhythms. Make sure the rhythms are played accurately and completely in sync to keep the beat steady and moving.

The trio provides the most interesting and challenging content. At measure 103, the piece brings back the introduction, which dramatically slows down the music into measure 118. Although the tempo slows, the music is to remain as strong as possible. From here, the music is to slowly increase to its original tempo to end the march.

Ryan Meeboer is a music educator, who obtained his degree through the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto. As a composer, he has written and arranged many pieces for concert band, jazz band, and small ensembles. His young band piece, Last Voyage of the Queen Anne's Revenge, has been well received by performers, educators, and audiences, and his pieces are starting to be found on festival and contest lists. As a performer, he has had experience in several groups, including concert and stage bands, chamber choir, vocal jazz ensemble, acoustic duets, and the Hamilton based swing group, "The Main Swing Connection".

Ryan began studying music at the age of seven through private guitar lessons. During his years in elementary and secondary school, he gained experience in several families of instruments. Focusing on music education and theory (including composition and orchestration), he attended McMaster University to achieve his honours degree in music. Ryan is currently a teacher for the Halton District School Board in Ontario, where he continues to compose and arrange.
