About the Music

Based on three different Scottish dance forms, this work explores a wide variety of Celtic styles using both authentic dance tunes and original material. The first movement, Reel, is in cut time as is typical of all reels. It is based on the tune The Last Pint of Ale, a lively, spirited tune. In this case, the melody itself never changes—the movement is constantly developed with surrounding material.

The second movement, Air, is based on the tune Well May I Behold My Faithful Brown-Hair'd Maid, a slow lyrical tune in  $\frac{4}{4}$ . It presents the melody in two contrasting settings—the first in a chamber music setting with solo saxophone before a brief transition to a full ensemble presentation in an emotional and powerful setting. The movement closes with a brief return to solo saxophone in a delicate texture.

The final movement, Jig, is a lively dance in  $\frac{6}{8}$  and is one of the most recognized Celtic dance forms. Loosely based on the tune Highlander's Jig, the movement weaves in and out of the source material as it also explores original ideas.

All three movements stand on their own and may be performed individually if desired. Of particular interest is the last movement, which may be used as a short concert closer or encore.
