

Leave Sought

W.H. Auden

It, when a kind of year falls beautiful
In the evenings and against the light
It beckons gently down the wilderness
That here that wilderness had been right across
Created by the march of things,
By millions, hence unnumbered things,
I know it is, this, among all the paths,
The wilderness not my own but
Hence unnumbered years from the stars,
For that I was, that I should have no more,
Be wilderness the wilderness here,
For might I would, for give might I have

Love Sought

Winton Robinson

Edward Peckell

The musical score for "Love Sought" is presented in a standard format with four systems. The first system includes a vocal line (Soprano) and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with the lyrics "I have sought for love, but I have found it not." The piano accompaniment features a melodic line in the right hand and a harmonic line in the left hand. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics "I have sought for love, but I have found it not." The piano accompaniment continues with a similar melodic and harmonic structure. The third system shows the vocal line with the lyrics "I have sought for love, but I have found it not." The piano accompaniment continues with a similar melodic and harmonic structure. The fourth system shows the vocal line with the lyrics "I have sought for love, but I have found it not." The piano accompaniment continues with a similar melodic and harmonic structure.
