About the Music

Carnaval is a time of merriment and social excess held just before the season of Lent in Brazil, the beginnings of which date back to 1840. This piece attempts to capture the beauty of this event and the richness of the Brazilian culture.

The first bars of the melody beginning at measure 17 are framed by the chords in the rhythm section, which float before the bossa nova groove is reintroduced. This technique takes the listener out of the groove momentarily and provides a nice contrast. The climax of the melody occurs at measure 69, where the floating technique is used again. Each section of the ensemble is featured: rhythm section (intro and throughout), saxes (measure 33), trumpets (measure 102), and trombones (measure 109).
