The Composer

Erik Morales (b. December 10, 1966) began his composing career shortly after graduation from high school in south Florida. He studied composition at Florida International University, and completed his bachelor's degree at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Accessible at all levels, the music of Erik Morales has a unique melodic and harmonic vocabulary that appeals to audiences nationwide. His published works encompass a large variety of styles and settings, including works for concert, orchestral, jazz, and chamber ensembles. Mr. Morales currently teaches and plays trumpet professionally in the New Orleans area, in addition to maintaining an active composing and conducting schedule.

About the Music

A major transition in pop music and culture became evident in the 1950s with the introduction of rock 'n' roll. The goal of this piece is to capture the essence of that wonderful time in our musical heritage. You will hear styles reminiscent of Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley, Fats Domino, and Bill Haley and the Comets, to name a few.

There is an alto sax solo section with optional repeats to feature other instruments if desired. All solos are written out along with chord changes, so no improvisation is necessary (although encouraged). There's even an "a cappella" section where horns imitate the popular doo-wop style of the era. Tempo is brisk and 8th notes should be played straight, without swing.
