NOTES TO THE ENSEMBLE

Malevolent March has both lyrical and aggressively articulate moments that make the piece unique to the brass quintet repertoire. The melody moves throughout the ensemble and should be identified while rehearsing to ensure smooth transitions between phrases.

The middle of the piece is meant to contrast with a somewhat silly sound as the tuba plays the main melody in a major key.

I hope you enjoy Malevolent March and it becomes a valuable part of your quintet repertoire. Best wishes for stellar performances!
