PROGRAM NOTE

Santa has never sounded so blue! Featuring multiple soloists, Robert W. Smith has created this fun arrangement that is a decidedly new twist on the classic favorite Up On The Housetop. Originally scored for the University of Illinois Marching Illini and their appearance in the annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City, we invite you to tap your toes, clap and sing along as we ring in the holiday season Chicago blues style.

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

The arrangement begins with an interaction between the full band chords and several soloists. I would suggest only cueing the band on the chords in bars 1, 4 and 6. The soloists should have the freedom to interpret without the constraints of a tempo and pulse during their statements. Please note the tuba will make its entrance during the chord in measure 6 and with the sixteenths in measure 7 beginning on the conductor's cutoff.

The groove beginning at measure 11 is extremely important to the overall effect of the performance. I would suggest isolating the percussion and tubas/low reeds to insure the two are communicating with each other. Please note the articulations notated in the tuba/low reeds. Please don't let the tempo get too fast!

The vocals at measure 35 are performed twice. I suggest beginning with a soloist who can deliver a classic blues voice and character. The full band responds the second time emulating the style of the soloist.

Another option is to use this arrangement to introduce Santa Claus at your concert. If so, feel free to repeat the section at measure 35 as needed to allow Santa time to enter that hall and interact with your audience.

I hope that you, your band and audience find Blues For Santa to be enjoyable and a highlight of your holiday concert. I wish you a wonderful performance and holiday season!
