PROGRAM NOTE

Angels We Have Heard On High is a classic English carol originally set to the traditional French song "Gloria" by James Chadwick. John M. Pasternak's arrangement is a fun, rock-and-roll inspired setting for the modern concert band. Feel free to tap your toes, clap your hands and sing along!

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

The brass should play in a marcato style during the introduction. Please be sure the low brass and woodwinds do not overshadow the upper brass during their melodic statements.

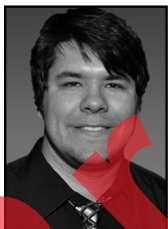

At measure 17, there should be contrast in articulation and playing style between the lower voices and the melody. The lower voices should be marcato while the melody and countermelody should have a more legato feel.

In contrast at measure 30, the lower voices should have a light, staccato approach while the upper voices play in a marcato style.

At measure 42, please ensure the tenor saxes and horns perform with presence and can be clearly heard.

I wish you and the band a wonderful and joyous concert and holiday season!
