PROGRAM NOTE

Of Myths and Legends (Stonehenge) is a depiction of the famous legends surrounding the ancient monument, set for concert band. Mystic, haunting melodies and exciting Celtic rhythms set the stage for a dive into myths of the ancient world.

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

As with many contemporary band pieces, there's a lot of percussion to contend with in this work, so the challenge is always to balance everything with the winds. At the beginning, be especially vigilant with the varying levels of dynamic markings in the percussion section. I've tried to help with balance throughout the piece this way, so my intentions are clear.

Regarding the winds, really work with the Clarinets at m. 35 to ensure they give their feature the proper attack...nothing "pretty" here! Similarly, the Horn glissandos at mm. 51-52 should be fairly aggressive to lead into their soli feature at m. 55. At m. 73, the Flute/Oboe/Clarinet swells can be pretty dramatic underneath the Brass fanfares, so they provide the appropriate fluttering texture.

Overall, don't be afraid to let the piece have an edge... and enjoy! Feel free to connect on my composer page at rwsmusic.com!
