About the Music

The Best of the Ballet is a potpourri of popular tunes from ballet scenes that span about 75 years of ballet history—from Adam's Giselle, which played a significant role in the earlier history of the art form, to Falla's gypsy ballet El amor brujo ("Love, the Magician").

In this arrangement of familiar tunes, students play in keys ranging from two sharps to one flat, and in meters $\frac{4}{4}$, $\frac{2}{4}$, and $\frac{3}{4}$. A wide range of articulations and styles are represented. Minimal shifting is required for violin 1, cello, and bass. Ritual Fire Dance, which begins by featuring the viola section, may be omitted if necessary.
